A Brief Synopsis

- ⌚ In US, IHS Markit Manufacturing PMI dropped at 50.3 in Aug19 which marks the lowest reading since September 2009. Reading below 50 signifies contraction. The lacklustre data was dragged on subdued rise in production and client demand, particularly foreign clients. The weakness in the manufacturing segment sentiment is expected to weigh down the country's economy in 3Q19.
- ⌚ European countries are facing domestic issues where preliminary estimates revealed that growth halved in the 2Q2019, returning to the slow pace seen in the 2H2018. Early data for the 3Q2019 has continued to underwhelm with a persistently weak industrial sector, downbeat confidence and a worsening global backdrop. Meanwhile, the economic environment remains bleak amid concerns over trade wars, Brexit and political turmoil in Italy. Against this backdrop and considering modest inflation, the European Central Bank is expected to unveil a broad stimulus package at its Sept19 meeting to boost the outlook.
- ⌚ Chinese Yuan Renminbi dropped below 7 recently amid sharp deterioration in US-China trade relations, accusation of currency manipulations from US and overall global slowdown. The currency's depreciation may aid the country's struggling export sector while simultaneously damage their import and consumption sector which has driven recent economic growth.
- ⌚ Uncertain outlook caused by the US-China trade standoff continue to suppress business sentiments in Japan. Moreover, any last-minute front-loaded demand ahead of the consumption tax hike will be temporary and result in a payback effect in October-December production activity. Another worrying signs are weaker output coupling with tail end of Tokyo Olympic constructions which may slowdown in job creation.
- ⌚ ASEAN bourses registered negative returns in Aug19, with Singapore's Straits Times Index (STI) being the worst performer falling by 5.9% MoM followed by Thailand's Stock Exchange Index (SET), FTSE Bursa Malaysia KLCI Index (FBMKLCI), Jakarta Composite Index (JCI) and Philippine's Stock Exchange Index (PCOMP) which fell 3.3%, 1.4%, 1.0% and 0.8% MoM respectively.
- ⌚ For the month of Sept19, markets will experience the late summer heat where they unwittingly launching themselves into a pattern that oscillates between central banks easing, U.S.-China trade uncertainties, Brexit and a self-fulfilling recession. We expect 25 basis points (bps) rate cuts in Sept19 and probably another 25bps by end of 2019, as Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) tries to reduce the downside risks of U.S. economy slowdown

Window to the World

New Zealand: Surprise rate cut announcement – The central bank's aggressive move of cutting its benchmark policy rate by 50 basis points (bps) to 1% took the market by surprise on the back of international trade frictions which slowed global demand that have impacted the factory activity and exports prompting the local currency to fall sharply. The country's economy also faced pressure domestically surrounding falling house prices and weakness in business and consumer confidence.

Indonesia: President Jokowi proposed USD 144.6bil for 2020 budget – The proposed budget is centred on human resources spending to raise the quality of labor market in his second term which parliament ought to finalise in Oct19. The proposed budget is said to uplift the education sector whereby the government would provide training for emerging skills and financing for universities enrolments as well as tax incentives namely tax holiday for eligible projects, super deduction for the development of vocational and research and development activities and a new investment allowance for labor-intensive industries. The proposed stimulus is expected to drive the economy to reach 5.3% growth, the fastest pace since 2013.

Thailand: Unveiled USD 10bil spending package - The Thailand finance minister said the stimulus would support farmers and tourism in the midst of flagging economy to drive up its domestic activity. The package includes loans and debt moratoriums for farmers, loans for smaller businesses and cash handouts for low-income earners. In terms of tourism sector, cash handouts of THB 10bil would cater for 10 mil people plus tax breaks. The government is targeting growth of at least 3% growth this year and 3.5% next year.

A Peep into Malaysia

FBMKLCI fell by 1.4% MoM in Aug19 to close at 1,612.1 - Looking at the trading participants for the month, both local retailers and institutions were net buyers, buying RM670mil and RM1,928.8mil worth of shares respectively. Foreign investors on the other hand, were the net sellers, selling RM2,598.7mil worth of shares. On year-to-date (YTD) basis, local retailers and institutions are the net buyers, buying RM1,683.1mil and RM5,658mil worth of shares respectively while foreign investors are net sellers, selling RM7,340.9mil.

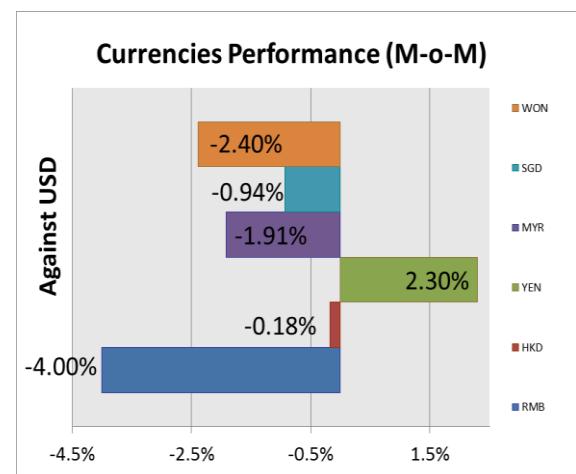

Axiata - Telenor called off merger – Both parties have mutually agreed to end the discussion after working on due diligence over the last four months. Complexity issues arising from commercial issues, national and staff interests as well as Indonesia's reluctance to give its blessing as it sees Norway as being part of the European Union's (EU) pressure on palm oil imports imposed a major roadblocks on the feasibility of a merger that could potentially create the largest telecommunications company in Southeast Asia region with a combined annual revenue of USD 12bil and a net profit of nearly USD 1bil.

Overnight Policy Rate (OPR) maintained at 3% - Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) kept the OPR unchanged on September alongside market consensus, albeit the central bank cautioned on gloomy global economy backdrop surrounding the trade war uncertainties. On the domestic front, Malaysia recorded 4.9% yoy growth in 2Q19, supported by the resilience of private spending amid broad-based expansion in key economic sector. The central bank opined that stable labour market and wage growth will continue to support the economy whilst Malaysia's diversified exports will partially offset some external headwinds.

Continuous uncertainties in trade resolution

We think there is little chance a resolution could be reached between the U.S. and China in Sept19. However, stock markets could rebound if, after trade officials meet and plans are made for Presidents Trump and Xi to meet during the APEC Summit in Nov19. The U.S. will impose a 15% tariff on roughly $130bn in imports from China starting this 1st September, with China's retaliation set to take effect concurrently. As a result, Sept19 will commence with higher tariffs and a clear worsening in U.S.-China trade relations. In addition, United States Trade Representative (USTR) published a formal notice this week for hearings scheduled during the month for the tariff rate on all earlier tranches (totaling $250bn) to increase 5 percentage points to 30% on 1st October.

A potential sign of Malaysia benefiting from the trade diversion was evident from approved foreign manufacturing investments which surged 80.4% yoy to RM25.1bil, with rising interest from the US (RM11.7bil), China (RM4.8bil), Singapore (RM3.2bil), and Japan (RM2.1bil). Notable projects mentioned include a large scale solar project in Kedah, monocrystalline solar cell project in Kuching from China, and American semiconductor projects. In the capital markets, Aug19 saw outflows rising to RM2.6bil, the highest since Jun18. Malaysia's exports turned around to gain 1.7% yoy in Jul19 (from -3.4% yoy in Jun19). This came as a positive surprise against the Bloomberg consensus of a 2.5% yoy decline. Meanwhile imports declined further by 5.9% yoy (Jun19: -9.8% yoy), resulting in a larger trade surplus of RM14.3bn.

- ⌚ Equity funds that invest in Malaysia that we track recorded negative returns in Aug19 which is in line with underperforming FBMKLCI that fell 1.4% on the same period. All sectors in Malaysia recorded negative returns except for plantation which rose by 2.3% MoM. The plantation sector was boosted by stronger export demands from India and China and aided by the weaker ringgit to lend support for the commodity.
- ⌚ Precious Metal Securities fund maintained its lead as the best performing fund for the month when the fund climbed 4.1% in Aug19 thanks to its 81.2% exposure to gold mining companies. Gold price has been on the rise since trade war escalated in May19 as indicated by a surge of 6.8% to close at $1,523/Oz in Aug19, the highest mark since Apr13.
- ⌚ In the midst of weakness in the equity market, the property and REIT fund outperformed FBMKLCI for Aug19. AmGlobal Property Equities, AmAsia Pacific REIT and Manulife Investments Asia Pacific REIT Fund generated positive returns which climbed 3.9%, 2.2% and 1.0% respectively thanks to sticky clientele base and low interest rate environment.
- ⌚ Meanwhile, RHB Entrepreneur came out as the worst performer of the month which fell by 4.8% in line with Nikkei which retreated 3.8% in the same period. The fund invests primarily in the Japanese markets (68.7% of NAV). The weakness in the Japanese market is attributed to subdued output coupling with tail end of Tokyo Olympic constructions which seems to wane off some front loading activities and employment growth.
- ⌚ For this month, the fixed income space generally outperformed equity space in which the top performers were AmBon Islam and Ambond which surged 2.1% and 2.0% respectively. Market remains on the lookout for another rate cut by BNM, potentially in Nov19 following Fed's most likely dovish stance. The market is anticipating for another one or two rate cut by the Fed for the rest of the year.
