A Brief Synopsis

- ⌚ Positive momentum from US-China trade truce seems to be short-lived when the World Health Organization (WHO) declared the novel coronavirus (Covid-19) outbreak a global public health emergency, but did not call for restrictions on travel or trade. However, investors were encouraged by China's announcement that it will cut tariffs on $75bn of US goods effective 14 February, as part of the phase 1 trade deal. January's jobs report showed that the US economy added a solid 225,000 jobs, wage growth accelerated, and more workers were pulled from the side-lines and into the workforce. Manufacturing PMIs also unexpectedly expanded in January to the highest level since July 2019.
- ⌚ German manufacturing data in January suggested demand is firming up, shaking off the trade drag that nearly pulled the German economy into recession last year. Signs of improvement were echoed by a slew of other indicators as manufacturing-led pick-up in activity in Germany is consistent with one of our key macro views - global growth is present in 2020 albeit lower than 2019. Financial conditions remain highly accommodative in the Euro area, a de-escalation of the US-China trade dispute would reduce the drag on the Eurozone, while Covid-19 is still a distance issue to Euro area..
- ⌚ India announced its annual budget, an upward revision targeting a 3.5% fiscal deficit for FY 2021 and 3.8% for 2020. Measures such as the removal of a dividend distribution tax, higher indirect taxes on cigarettes and support investment over consumption were also part of the budget announcement. India's manufacturing PMI accelerated for the third straight month to 55.3 in January, a eight-year high, led by strong growth in new orders, while Services PMI rose to 55.5 from 53.3 in December 2019, the highest in seven years. However, India is facing social unrest over the controversial citizenship law that was ruled out in 10 January 2020 in which critics said such move undermine India's secular constitution .
- ⌚ All ASEAN bourses were in negative territory in January. Philippine's Stock Exchange Index (PCOMP) recorded the worst performance which slumped by 7.9%, followed by Jakarta Composite Index (JCI), Thailand's Stock Exchange Index (SET), FTSE Bursa Malaysia KLCI Index (FBMKLCI), and Singapore's Straits Times Index (STI), which fell by 5.7%, 4.2%, 3.6%, and 2.1% MoM respectively.
- ⌚ Aside from the Covid-19 affecting the global supply chain, other major setback to global growth seems unlikely, given continued accommodative monetary policy, fiscal stimulus, ample bank credit in most regions, as well as moderate oil and commodities prices.

Window to the World

UK: Brexit finally happened – UK currently entered into a transition period that ends on 31 December 2020, where the country still remains in the EU's customs union and single market, albeit automatically lose its membership of the EU's political institutions. After UK left the EU on 31 January 2019, the uncertainty lies on the upcoming trade deal negotiations with the EU. Failure to do so might result on tariffs on exports to the EU. Besides trade deal, issues relating to security and law enforcement also needs to be sorted out.

China: Pump RMB1.2tn into financial markets amid Covid-19 outbreak– The proactive macro policies announced by the People's Bank of China (PBoC), RMB1.2tn injection via reverse repos and relending were seen by investors as a clear positive signal and boost confidence. As the RMB1.05tn reverse repo is set to mature early Feb20, this amounts to an injection of RMB150bn. Beijing also said that tariffs would be halved on USD75bn of US imports from Feb 14 as part of the Phase 1 trade deal.

Philippines cut interest rate to 3.75% – The central bank cut its policy interest rate by 25bps as a pre-emptive move to boost market confidence and domestic economy. The consumer price index (CPI) climbed 2.9%, the highest since May19, attributed to soaring cost of food, clothing, transport and utilities, in line within the central bank's 2.5%-3.3% forecasted range.

A Peep into Malaysia

FBMKLCI dropped by 3.6% MoM in January 2020 to close at 1,531.06 points - Looking at the trading participants for the month, only local retailers were net buyers, buying RM342.8mil worth of shares. Local institutions and foreign investors on the other hand, were net sellers, selling RM204.5mil and RM138.3mil worth of shares respectively. All sectors in Malaysia recorded negative returns in January 2020 with the exception of healthcare and technology sectors which jumped by 9.8% and 3.1% MoM respectively.

Malaysia's GDP growth decelerated in 2019 at 4.3% – The GDP marks the lowest growth in 10 years, dragged by shrinking private consumption and supply disruptions in the commodities sector coupled with slower external demand amidst weakness in the global economy. Meanwhile, the 4Q19 GDP also slowed to 3.6%, weighed down by the contractions in mining, agriculture, slowdown in manufacturing despite lifted by services and construction sector. Malaysia had a surprised cut earlier in January, as a pre-emptive measure to secure the improving growth trajectory amid price stability.

Visit Malaysia 2020 impacted by the Covid-19 – The tourism industry is adversely impacted by the Covid-19 outbreak as losses from cancellations and bookings amounted to RM3bil. Such losses could affect the government's target of achieving 30 million arrivals for this year. Alternatively, the government would push for the promotion of domestic tourism to cushion the impact. 86% of hotel receipts were from Malaysians, which could boost the country's tourism revenue further. The government had imposed a temporary travel ban on arrivals from Chinese provinces of Hubei, Zhejiang and Jiangsu, which are under lockdown as part of its measures to contain the outbreak.

Made in China: Hiccup in the “World’s Factory”

As governments at all levels in China takes extreme measures to contain the novel coronavirus (Covid-19). China's central government commanded that no businesses should return to work before 3 February. More than half of the provincial governments extended the work ban to 9 February or later, as a measure meant to ensure that migrant workers who travelled would not come back to work too soon. Some international car manufacturers plan to restart the production, however, resuming to normal production proved to be challenging as parts procurement is scattered in different cities.

A new set of rules has been issued by local authorities where manufacturers must adhere to before restarting its production. A Foxconn iPhone factory in the city of Zhengzhou failed the public health inspection and as a result, it will not be allowed to resume work on 10 February.

Although some companies managed to operate again, understaffed is another issue as Wuhan and other cities in Hubei province are still cut off from transportation, preventing people from leaving while migrant workers from elsewhere are required to stay at home for 14 days before they can return to their posts. Despite its utmost urgency, restarting production is still a difficult decision for businesses to make.

If Chinese businesses cannot resume their normal production level soon, the global manufacturers who rely on China would have to source their supplies elsewhere.
